What are the Ontario Summer Games?

The Ontario Summer Games is supported by the Government of Ontario through the Games Ontario program. This program delivers or supports multi-sport events, including the Ontario Winter and Summer Games for youth, the Ontario 55+ Summer and Winter Games, and the Ontario Parasport Games. The London 2024 Ontario Summer Games are Ontario's largest sporting event and were awarded to London in 2021 after the cancellation of the London 2020 Ontario Summer Games due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

When and where are the London 2024 Ontario Summer Games?

The London 2024 Ontario Summer Games will be held Thursday, August 1st – Sunday, August 4th, 2024. This is the Civic long weekend to allow more friends and family to make the trip to London to attend. The London 2024 Ontario Summer Games will feature 18 different sports hosted in over 20 venues across the city.

Who participates in the Ontario Summer Games?

Over 3,500 of the province's top youth athletes aged 12-18, coaches and officials will participate at the Ontario Summer Games. Past participants have gone on to compete at the Canada Summer Games and have represented Canada internationally including at the Olympics. Approximately 700 local volunteers will be recruited to support the Games.

Why partner with the London 2024 Ontario Summer Games?

Partnering with the London 2024 Ontario Summer Games provides brands with a unique opportunity to raise awareness to over 3500 participating athletes, coaches, and officials from across Ontario, plus their friends, families, administrators, and the approximately 700 volunteers that will donate their time over the August long weekend. For some of these athletes, this will be the pinnacle of their athletic career; the largest and most prestigious sporting event they will ever attend, producing memories that will last a lifetime. For others, the Ontario Summer Games are a steppingstone as they advance to national and international competitions like the Olympic Games. A partnership with the London 2024 Ontario Summer Games is a tremendous opportunity to show your organization's support and passion for youth athletics, education, and volunteerism; while supporting a legacy to increase sport participation in the London community.
